Explanations

As publicly disclosed on 09.11.2021, after the purchase of 18% of Yapı ve Kredi Bankası A.Ş. (YKB) shares from UniCredit S.p.A subject to obtaining necessary approvals from regulatory authorities in Turkey and abroad, Koç Holding's direct and indirect shares in YKB will be above the 50% threshold defined in CMB's Communique on Takeover Bids and accordingly a mandatory tender offer will be triggered for Koç Holding for the shares of other YKB shareholders. In this respect, an application was made to CMB for the approval of the mandatory tender offer that will be conducted upon closing, which will take place after the necessary approvals are obtained.

Material developments regarding the transaction will be disclosed to our investors.
